Why is Wallander so good? What makes Wallander memorable in the end is the arc that underlies them -- the detective's own story as he plummets toward emotional and physical crisis.

Is Wallander based on a real person? Kurt Wallander is a fictional police inspector living and working in Ystad, Sweden. In the novels, he solves shocking murders with his colleagues.

Does Wallander like opera? There is a level of empathy with the victims of crime that is almost impossible to contain, and one of the prices he pays for that sort of empathy is a personal life that is a kind of wasteland." In the novels, Wallander regularly listens to opera in his apartment and his car.

What is Wallander's first name? Kurt Wallander (Swedish pronunciation: [va?l?n?d?r]) is a fictional Swedish police inspector created by Swedish crime writer Henning Mankell (1948 – 2015).

Why did Tom Hiddleston leave Wallander? Tom Hiddleston left the series after two seasons due to scheduling conflicts with other projects.

Which version of Wallander is best? The BBC version is really pretty good, but the 2005 version is better in my opinion. Krister's portrayal is really good. Season 2 is the best, but season 1 is good too. The stories start out subtly and grow from there.

What happened to Wallander's wife? Wallander's wife, Inga, left him for another man several years ago, and since the death of his father, his only family has been his daughter, Linda. Linda recently married without Wallander's knowledge and they haven't spoken since.

Is Wallander British or Swedish? He's been the hero of a series of Swedish TV films, a Swedish TV series and finally the British series "Wallander," starring Kenneth Branagh, the fourth and final season of which begins Sunday on PBS's "Masterpiece Mystery!"

Was Loki in Wallander? This episode contains two actors who play regular characters in the Marvel Cinematic Universe: Tom Hiddleston (Magnus Martinsson), who plays Loki in the MCU, and Nicholas Hoult (Stefan Fredman), who plays Hank McCoy / Beast. This series's lead actor, Kenneth Branagh (Kurt Wallander) also directed an MCU movie, Thor.

What illness does Wallander have? Though Kurt Wallander is frequently troubled by the heinous crimes he investigates, memories of his father's final days have haunted him consistently over the last four seasons. In the finale — "The Troubled Man" — these fears loom even larger when Kurt learns that he too has Alzheimer's.

Was Wallander an alcoholic? But it was Mr. Mankell who led the way, with 10 mystery novels featuring Inspector Kurt Wallander, a gruff but humane detective troubled by self-doubt, overeating, alcoholism and, eventually, dementia.

Does Wallander get a girlfriend? Vanja got together with Wallander after the death of his father.
